Judge: SPIEGEL, J.

J. HOGAN

COMPLAINT WITH JURY DEMAND

Now comes the Plaintiff, Peggy Hatley, and for her complaint against the Defendants, states as follows:

1. I began work at Multi-Color Corporation on February 6, 2001.
2. As a good employee at Multi-Color Corporation, I received good reviews, but was continually treated differently because of my sex, based upon comments of supervisors and different treatment.
3. I complained to management about the different treatment, but no remedy was given to me.

4. I was discriminated against based on my sex when I was falsely accused of poor work performance. I was disciplined differently than male employees, and I was eventually terminated on February 17, 2004.

5. On or about November 7, 2004, I received from the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission a Notice of Right to Sue.

6. While I was employed, I was sexually harassed by Mr. Roy Eicher. The Company knew that I was harassed and when I complained about the harassment, I was terminated.

7. Because of the different treatment based on my sex and retaliation, I have lost wages, suffered emotional stress, lost benefits and request damages from the Court.

Plaintiff requests a Jury.

Respectfully submitted,

Peggy Hatley, Plaintiff
